Derby Worlds 2017

Derby Worlds 2017: Bring & Buy Form

CONDITIONS OF SALE

- 1 By signing the booking form you accept these terms and conditions and agree to be bound by them.
- 2 You must have legal title to the goods being sold.
- 3 We reserve the right to refuse any items or business at our discretion.
- 4 Whilst all reasonable care will be taken of items left for sale, we will not accept any responsibility for the loss or damage of any items left for sale at the Bring and Buy.
- 5 No more than 15 items will be accepted per booking form. An item may be a group of things. Examples:
A box of books could be one item. 15 individually priced books in a box would be 15 items. A boxed army would be one item. Individually priced units would be separate items.
- 6 Normally only ONE form will be accepted from each seller. A second form may be accepted at the discretion of the organisers.
- 7 Those wanting to sell more than 30 items should book a "flea market" table (cost £5-&7 for 1 hour, note that there is NO percentage charge on the items sold from such a table).
- 6 A charge of 50p will be made to offer items for sale.
- 7 A commission charge of 10% will be levied on all items sold.
- 8 All goods must be priced in units of 50p. No odd amounts and no items under 50p will be accepted. No 'ONO' (or nearest offer) prices will be accepted.
- 9 We accept no responsibility for any ambiguity by the seller on the booking form and our decision, on the interpretation of any such ambiguity, is final.
- 10 If the seller is willing to be paid by cheque for items sold, then this must be clearly stated on the booking form.
- 11 If full payment is made by cheque - to the seller - the seller must pay the 10% commission prior to receiving the cheque.
- 12 Items left for sale must be collected - by the seller - at the latest by 3pm on Sunday. Any goods not collected by 5pm on Sunday will become the property of Derby Worlds.
- 13 Payment and/or return of items will be available after 2.30pm each day. All items on the booking form will be either paid out or returned at the same time.
